Meditation & Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Question 61: Which is the ninth commandment? Answer:

The ninth commandment is, "Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor." 62. Q. What is required in the ninth commandment? A. The ninth commandment requires the maintaining and promoting of truth between man and man, (Zechariah 8:16) and of our own, (1 Peter 3:16; Acts 25:10) and our neighbor's good name, (2 John 1:12) especially in witness-bearing. (Proverbs 14:5,25)

Zechariah 8:16 These are the things you shall do: Speak each man the truth to his neighbor; Give judgment in your gates for truth, justice, and peace; 1 Peter 3:16 having a good conscience, that when they defame you as evildoers, those who revile your good conduct in Christ may be ashamed. Proverbs 14:5A faithful witness does not lie, But a false witness will utter lies. 14:25 A true witness delivers souls, But a deceitful witness speaks lies.

Coram Deo (living before the face of God)

“This lamentation was a recognition that Saul’s death was a tragedy and why. It was because there had been, by God’s kindness, good in Saul and his reign. If the people were to understand and experience their grief properly, they needed to see that. As we grieve it is important for us to understand that it’s about the good that has been lost. This will mean remembering the good. It is a time to put into words what we have lost and to therefore recognize those things that were God’s gift to us. And therefore to learn to thank God in our grief. David taught his people to grieve well.” ~ John Woodhouse (Preaching The Word Commentary)
