Meditation & Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

2 Samuel 3: 1 – 21

Faith Is the Victory (Hymn 521)

SPURGEON'S CATECHISM

Question 65: Is any man able perfectly to keep the commandments of God? Answer: No mere man, since the fall, is able in his life perfectly to keep the commandments of God, (Ecclesiastes 7:20) but does daily break them in thought, (Genesis 8:21) word, (James 3:8) and deed. (Jms 3:2) Ecclesiastes 7:20 For there is not a just man on earth who does good And does not sin. Genesis 8:21 And the LORD smelled a soothing aroma. Then the LORD said in His heart, "I will never again curse the ground for man's sake, although the imagination of man's heart is evil from his youth; nor will I again destroy every living thing as I have done. James 3:8 But no man can tame the tongue. It is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. James 3:2 For we all stumble in many things. If anyone does not stumble in word, he is a perfect man, able also to bridle the whole body.

Coram Deo (living before the face of God)

“Christian workers must be alert to their own Abnermentality. Our orthodox line about supporting Christ's kingdom may only be a cover for using it. As we sing ‘Onward, Christian Soldiers’, we realize there are many mercenaries in the ranks. And even faithful preachers, for example, who desire to proclaim and make plain God's truth, know there are times when they seem more concerned with whether God's people will be impressed with them, like them, congratulate and dote over them. Abner is not far away from any one of us.” ~ Dale R. Davis (Focus on the Bible Commentary)
