Meditation & Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

OUR CONFESSION - NEW HAMPSHIRE 1833

V. Of Justification - We believe that the great gospel blessing which Christ secures to such as believe in him is justification; that justification includes the pardon of sin, and the promise of eternal life on principles of righteousness; that it is bestowed not in consideration of any works of righteousness which we have done, but solely through faith in the Redeemer's blood; by virtue of which faith his perfect righteousness is freely imputed to us of God; that it brings us into a state of most blessed peace and favor with God, and secures every other blessing needful for time and eternity.

Coram Deo (living before the face of God)

"The episode is both a narrow escape and a small sign that Yahweh is at work for David. It reminds me of a story Spurgeon told of a godly minister running from his persecutors, finding a hayloft, and plunging himself beneath the hay. The soldiers came soon, swords and bayonets thrusting and testing the hay for the 'scoundrel'. The lord's servant even felt cold steel on the sole of his foot—the mark remained for years. Yet his pursuers did not discover him. Afterwards a hen came and laid an egg every day right near the place where he was hidden, and 'so he was sustained as well as preserved until it was safe for him to leave his hiding-place'. That might not seem like much. You may not care much for raw eggs. But what a clear sign that God had not forgotten his servant. And it beats eating hay. Little providences can be grand encouragements." ~ Dale R. Davis (Focus on the Bible Commentary.)
