Meditation & Prayer

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Sermon Text

How Great Thou Art (Hymn 6)

Readings from the Scriptures...

Proverbs 5: 1-23 Wisdom and Sexual Immorality

These verses focus on wisdom and two women, an adulteress and one's wife: Wisdom urges us to avoid the life-destroying adulteress and to find sexual and emotional satisfaction in the bonds of marriage. (Reformation Study Bible) The command of God concerning the proper context of sexual relations as being a faithful covenant between one man and one woman brings fulfillment and joy while rejecting and disobeying God's requirements results in ruin, suffering, and great accountability.

Are You Washed in the Blood (Hymn 229)

Coram Deo (living before the face of God)

Concerning our Scripture reading from proverbs: "Lawful marriage is a means God has appointed to keep from these destructive vices. But we are not properly united, except as we attend to God's word, seeking his direction and blessing, and acting with affection. Ever remember, that though secret sins may escape the eyes of our fellow-creatures, yet a man's ways are before the eyes of the Lord, who not only sees, but ponders all his goings. Those who are so foolish as to choose the way of sin, are justly left of God to themselves, to go on in the way to destruction." ~ Matthew Henry
