

FIRST BAPTIST LOGAN

Lord's Day December 7th, 2025

Welcome & Announcements

Prelude Meditation, Prayer, and Confession

Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy Kingdom come, thy will be done in earth, as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation but deliver us from evil: For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

Call to Worship Isaiah 12:2-6

Second Sunday of Advent PEACE

Tranquility and Wholeness - Isaiah 40:3-5

The Scriptures speak of peace with God and the peace of God. Peace with God is the reconciling work of Jesus whereby we are united, redeemed, and adopted in Him to the glory of the Father. Moreover, as the Apostle Paul indicates in Phil 4:6-7, we also are growing in the peace of God: "But in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known to God. 7 And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus."

Christmas is a celebratory reminder of the eternal tranquility and wholeness which is ours in the Prince of Peace.

Holy, Acceptable unto God (True Blessedness)

"Mary, animated by Elisabeth's address, and being also under the influence of the Holy Ghost, broke out into joy, admiration, and gratitude. She knew herself to be a sinner who needed a Saviour, and that she could no otherwise rejoice in God than as interested in his salvation through the promised Messiah. Those who see their need of Christ, and are desirous of righteousness and life in him, he fills with good things, with the best things; and they are abundantly satisfied with the blessings he gives. He will satisfy the desires of the poor in spirit who long for spiritual blessings, while the self-sufficient shall be sent empty away." ~ Matthew Henry Commentary (Luke 1:38-56)
